THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING THE COMMUNITY

Surry Hills Festival is a fundraiser for Surry Hills Neighbourhood Centre

(SHNC), an organisation that nurtures and celebrates our vibrant local community. SHNC provides important community and creative programs, like those for children or elderly, homeless, people experiencing mental illness, from socio- economic or culturally diverse backgrounds.

Please give generously. Your donations directly benefit the community.

Experience all there is to Love in Surry Hills...

Surry Hills Festival returns on Saturday 23 September for a fabulous spring celebration across Ward Park, Devonshire Street, Shannon Reserve, Crown Street, laneways, pop up creative spaces, and everything in between.

This year's program introduces Double Take. Surry Hills Neighbourhood Centre in partnership with Surry Hills Creative Precinct and local creatives, Esem Projects, have been working with artists to overlay Devonshire Street and surrounds with a curated trail of projections and art - transforming the heart of Surry Hills into a plethora of creative adventure.

Explore the area's famed food, art and design scenes. Take advantage of all the free events and creativity on offer and get a glimpse of what makes Surry Hills tick.

Bring along family and friends on Saturday 23 September. Join a lantern-making workshop and, as the sun goes down, explore works by over 60 projection, installation and performance artists as part of Double Take.

Double Take runs 23 September to 15 October with projection and lighting installations until 10pm daily.

GUIDED TOURS WITH CULTURE SCOUTS

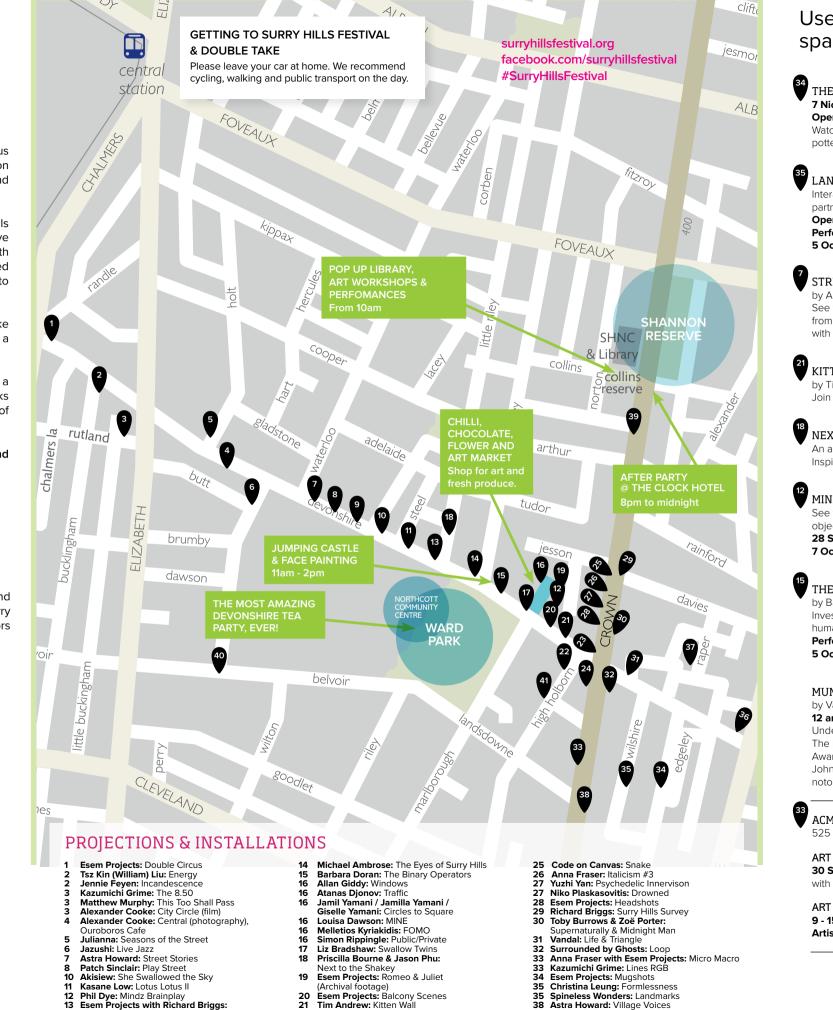

Join a walking tour especially curated for Surry Hills Festival and Double Take. Learn about the history, public art and stories of Surry Hills. Meet the neighbourhood's talented entrepreneurs, the curators and artists who bring you Double Take.

Saturday 23 September, 11am to 1pm and 2pm to 4pm Thursdays 28 September, 5 and 12 October, 4pm to 6pm

Cost: $20 donation to SHNC and community programs. Places are limited so bookings essential: culturescouts.com.au/tours
